4. Development and implementation of specific activities and projects based on this Memorandum of Understanding will be negotiated separately between faculties, schools or institutes which carry out specific activities and projects. Prior to commencement of any such activity or project, a specific agreement identifying all the terms and conditions will be drawn up and signed by both parties. Each party agrees to carry out the specific activities and projects in accordance with the laws and regulations of the respective countries after full consultation and approval.
5. It is understood that development and implementation of any type of specific activities and projects, as outlined in Clause 2, shall depend upon the availability of resources and financial support of the parties concerned.
6. Should the collaborative research activities under this Memorandum of Understanding result in any potential for intellectual property, each party shall seek an equitable and fair agreement as to the ownership and other property interest that may arise.
7. This Memorandum of Understanding may only be amended or modified by a written agreement signed by the representatives of each party.
8. This Memorandum of Understanding is valid for a period of five (5) years from the date of signing by the authorised signatories of each party. Each party shall review the status of the Memorandum of Understanding at the end of the five-year period to determine whether it wishes the validity of the Memorandum of Understanding to be extended, and if so, any modifications that might be necessary.

The period of validity of this Memorandum of Understanding may only be extended by the mutual written consent of both parties.

9. This Memorandum of Understanding may, at any time during its period of validity, be amended or terminated by one of the parties upon prior notice in writing no later than six months before the date of termination or amendment.
10. Any amendment or termination of the Memorandum of Understanding shall not have an effect on any specific activities or projects that are in accordance with Clause 3 and are already in place at the time that the notice is provided, unless it is agreed upon otherwise by both parties.
11. The parties may disclose certain confidential information to the other party in relation to any future proposal made under this Memorandum of Understanding. Each party therefore agrees that the content of this

Memorandum of Understanding and the negotiations in relation to any future proposal remains strictly confidential and each party hereby undertakes not to disclose the same to any third party, save for its professional advisers, without prior written consent of the other party except where such disclosure is required by law (including, without limitation, under applicable freedom of information legislation).
